

Judicial Communications Twitter policy

Account

The Twitter account @judgesscotland is managed by Judicial Communications during office hours.

Tweets will cover a range of topics, including:

- sentencing statements
- summaries of opinions
- news releases and announcements
- recruitment.

Following

We will not automatically follow anyone who follows @judgesscotland. Being followed by @judgesscotland does not imply an endorsement of any kind.

@judgesscotland will follow organisations or individuals of relevance to the judiciary. We will cease to follow accounts we believe to be malicious, spam or inappropriate.

Contact

Judicial Communications will not necessarily answer messages through Twitter and sending messages to our Twitter feed will not be considered official contact.

Response

We will not automatically respond to tweets. We may respond either openly or privately to provide factual information or guidance.

Availability

Twitter may occasionally be unavailable and we accept no responsibility for lack of service due to Twitter downtime.

Security

We will change our Twitter password every 6 months using strong passwords.
